

Department of the Judicial Administration of iMafia

Judge Rider

1. The minimum salary of judges at iMafia ranking tournaments is the minimum mandatory salary, depending on the region of the tournament.

The minimum salary of a judge for a series (8-10) is calculated as for 10 games. Even if there were only 8 or 9 games in the series.

2. Accommodation

2.1. The tournament/series organizer undertakes to provide accommodation for the tournament/series judges during the tournament/series.

2.2. The organizer may accommodate judges as guests under adequate conditions - providing a separate bed/sofa.

3. Travel Expenses

3.1. The tournament/series organizer agrees to cover the travel expenses for judges from their place of residence to the tournament location. This payment includes: travel expenses to the tournament location, and if the judge does not reside at or near the tournament location, the organizer must arrange for the judge's transportation to the event venue (e.g., taxi fare, etc.).

3.2. Travel expenses are calculated based on the cheapest available travel option for the judge on the tournament dates. (If it is possible for the judge to travel by ground transportation, and if this option is cheaper, the judge cannot demand mandatory payment for a flight).

4. Meals

4.1 . The tournament/series organizer undertakes to provide lunch to the judges during the tournament/series. If the tournament lasts for two days, lunch is provided daily.

4.2. The cost of lunch is estimated at an average of about 15 euros, depending on the country where the tournament is held.

4.3. The organizer is obligated to provide water for the judge at the gaming table during the tournament.

5. Payment

5.1. Payment for officiating is made after the judge has fulfilled their duties.

5.2. Payment can be made in any currency convenient for both the Organizer and the judge.

5.3. The Organizer must pay the judge on the last day of the tournament.

5.4. The Organizer is not allowed to pay the judge an amount less than specified in the tables below.

6. Replay of Game

6.1. If a judge makes an error and the Head Judge of the tournament decides to replay the game, the judge whose game is replayed will receive payment for one game less according to the pricing, while the judge who oversees the replayed game will receive payment for one game more according to the pricing.
